Rt. Rev. W. R. Whittingham, D.D.

My Dear Bishop:-

I have had a conversation with Bishop Pinkney and he has promised to confer with you this week in regard to our Cuban work - We suggest that you issue a pastoral letter - to be used by him for securing Money throughout this Diocese - I have almost dark heart- the way seems so dark — yet I am sure my ultimate to have Christ's work do his — that Gods interest may be manifested — and I trust that by God's help — he shall succeed — I wrote to Bishop Coxe this morning asking him to do all in his power — and if you will write a note to Bishop Clark I think something may be done in Rhode Island — for much of the wealth in that State has been made by traffic with Cuba —

Excuse my troubling you at this time — please — and asking your prayers always for the success of Christ's work and for me

Alex. Remain with much love—

Sincerely & faithfully Yours in Xt.
